Dear Valued Partners,

Warm greetings from Waseda University, Tokyo, Japan!

We are thrilled to announce that applications will be opening soon for Waseda Winter Session 2027!

This once-in-a-lifetime, four-week program for undergraduate students worldwide will run from January 11th to February 2nd, 2027, including a mandatory orientation on January 9th.

Whether they wish to explore their academic interests or Japanese unique cultures, our Winter Session provides the perfect opportunity.

Your students will also have the chance to meet new friends, including local students, and experience vibrant campus life at Waseda.

Participants will choose 2 subjects out of 6 subjects in the context of Japan and Asia Pacific and can earn 4 credits (2 credits for each*).

*Each subject has 23.3 teaching hours.

For more details, please see here (Syllabus will be updated by the end of August.)

The classes are entirely taught in English by well-known faculty members.

In addition, and most importantly, there will be a lot of extracurricular activities such as Japanese language exercises, field trips, site visits, and cultural events!
