

Center for ASEAN Studies

Application Form to Request Funding Support For Publishing Academic/Research Work

Center for ASEAN Studies, International College of Digital Innovation (ICDI),
Chiang Mai University

Part 1 Personal information of the applicant

1. Name - Surname.....
2. Position/Title.....
3. Organization.....
4. Mobile phone..... Email.....

Part 2 Academic/research work details (Please tick ✓ in front of the text that matches the qualifications)

Title of academic/research work.....

Type of academic/research work

- Research article
- Academic article
- Work that received a patent
- Other (please specify).....
- Work from a research project on..... which received research funding from.....
- Year..... the amount of budget.....
- This academic/research work has been published before. (Please specify) Volume.....
..... Number..... Year..... Page.....
- Published in an existing database.
- Not currently in any database.

List of members relevant to the academic/research work

1. Name-Surname: Organization.....

Role: Editor Main author Co-author

2. Name-Surname: Organization.....

Role: Editor Main author Co-author

The person requesting support is a First Author Yes No

The person requesting support is a Corresponding Author Yes No

The first author's affiliation is Chiang Mai University. Yes No

The applicant has published before (no less than 1 year) Yes No

Part 3 Please ensure the following documents are included when submitting a request.

1 form requesting funding support

1 copy of the academic/research work

 Note: Applicants who are requesting for funding support for publishing academic/research work must attach both documents above and send to email cas@icdi.cmu.ac.th If the application is incomplete, the applicant will not be eligible for funding support.

This academic work has copyright/contract with the funding source/institution.....

I consent to this academic/research work be used as part of reporting the performance of the Center for ASEAN Studies, International College of Digital Innovation (ICDI), Chiang Mai University.

I hereby certify that

1. This academic/research work has never been used to request (or is in the process of a request) funding support for publishing from other sources.
2. This academic work is not part of the applicant's graduation application.
3. Consent has been received from all co-authors of the academic/research work for the applicant to apply for funding support for publishing purposes.
4. The academic/research work complies with the criteria and conditions announced by the International College of Digital Innovation (ICDI) in the call for applications (“Electronic book project”) for funding support for publishing academic/research work.
5. The above statement is absolutely true.